

Week 5 – Lesson 5: Knowing the Almighty Part 1

Genesis 17:1-2

When all you have is the words of God...is that enough for you? Yes No

Our God is ALMIGHTY the other word for this is _____

This means He possess all _____.

Definition:

“The power of God is that ability and _____, whereby

He can _____ whatsoever He _____.”

– Stephen Charnock

Let’s consider: Do we have a life of _____ or _____ when we read the scriptures?

Two Paths:

1. A Life of _____

Matthew 22:23-29a

Who puts Jesus to the test? _____

Why?

What was Jesus response as He gets to the root of their question and test?

Matthew 22:29 – They do not understand the _____ nor do they understand the _____ of God.

- The Sadducees rejected much of the _____.

They only focused on the _____.

Do you have favorites in the Bible and neglect studying the whole counsel of God's word?

Which examples in this lesson hit home with you?

2 Timothy 3:1-5a

We tend to think of the _____ happenings around us...

What are some examples:

Paul warns that the internal dangers are more deadly for the church: Sins that _____ us from our own God. (Read & highlight the list in 2 Timothy 3:2-5a)

These sins cannot _____ with the _____.

The Bible says that it is like a: _____, a _____ and a

_____. Describe below what this means to you:
